SCHOOL LOAN REPAYMENT

The College Loan Repayment Program (CLRP) is for all non-prior service persons considering enlistment in the Air Force. If you have taken some college courses and have accumulated debt, this program may be for you. Participants must sign up for this program when signing the enlistment contract. Under CLRP, the repayment maximum is $10,000 per recruit.

POST 9/11 G.I. BILL

The Post 9/11 G.I. Bill is an assistance program created to attract quality men and women to the Armed Forces. The G.I. Bill pays 36 months of full time education benefits. So, if you go to school full-time, you'll receive the full benefit rates for 36 months. If you go to school 1/2 time, you'll receive half of your monthly entitlement for 72 months, etc. The MGIB pays up to 100 percent of the full tuition rate set by your state. Additionally, you will receive $1,000 per year for books and supplies, and you will receive a housing stipend equal to the Housing Allowance for an E-5 with Dependents. The average housing allowance for an E-5 with dependents is about $1,400 per month, but your actual rate will depend on where you live.

Individuals who elect to use the College Loan Repayment Program (CLRP) are eligible for the G.I. Bill, but only active duty service performed after their initial active duty service obligation count toward the new benefits. In other words, if you initially enlisted for five years and received the CLRP, you would have to reenlist or extend your enlistment in order to take advantage of the G.I. Bill.

This new GI Bill allows a member to transfer part or all of his/her education benefits to a spouse or child(ren). To be eligible, a member must have at least six years of active duty or active reserve service, and agree to serve for an additional four years.

TUITION ASSISTANCE

The Air Force Tuition Assistance (TA) program is designed to help active-duty personnel pursue voluntary, off-duty educational opportunities. Currently, the program pays 100% (up to $250 per semester hour or equivalent) of the cost of college tuition with a limit of $4500 per fiscal year. Courses and degree programs may be academic or technical and can be taken from two- or four-year institutions on base, off base or by correspondence.

PROMOTIONS AND ADVANCEMENT

AB (E-1): While enrolled in Basic Military Training (BMT) all members are the rank of Airman Basic (E-1). Most Band members are eligible for immediate promotion upon completion of Basic Training, depending upon other qualifying factors listed below.

Amn (E-2) & A1C (E-3): For an Amn to be promoted to A1C, they must have 10 months Time In Grade (TIG). Individuals enlisting for 6 years (instead of 4), and also individuals with more than 45 college credits, are promoted from AB or Amn to A1C upon completion of BMT.

SrA (E-4): The Air Force promotes A1C's to SrA with either 36 months of Time In Service (TIS) or 28 months of TIG, whichever occurs first. A1C's may compete for early advancement to SrA (called "Below The Zone", or BTZ) if they meet certain eligibility requirements and are deemed to be an exceptional Air Force performer. In this case they are competing against individuals both inside and outside of the band career field.

SSgt (E-5) and Above: Starting with the rank of SSgt, promotion is testing-based, and also takes into account individual Yearly Performance Reports.

401K

The federal Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) allows participants to place a portion of their monthly pay into an account similar to a 401(K) investment plan. The contributions are considered pre-tax dollars and therefore reduce the amount of income subject to tax, and the accounts grow tax-free. Enrollment is available when members first join the military and anytime thereafter. Unlike traditional military retirement, which requires a commitment of at least 20 years of active duty, money invested in the TSP belongs to individual members, no matter how many years they serve. Income contributed to the TSP is not taxed until withdrawn from the account. Withdrawal before age 59 ½ may be subject to penalty, however, the TSP account can be rolled over into an IRA or another employer's retirement account.

FITNESS STANDARDS

Airmen are tested twice a year. To pass, Airmen must achieve a minimum passing score in each component, and receive a total score of at least 75. See charts for specific scores.

DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS

Age (over 27 requires waiver; over 34 is ineligible), severe allergies, excessive weight, asthma, diabetes, surgeries, severe scarring, congenital defects, drug history, pending or past convictions, financial difficulty, too many dependants, single parent status, various other issues...

PRIOR MILITARY SERVICE

Enlistment eligibility for prior service members opens and closes periodically. Currently open. Check with career field manager for most current status.

BASIC MILITARY TRAINING (BMT)

BMT is an 8-week course held at Lackland AFB near San Antonio, TX that teaches the fundamentals of military life, which includes: customs and courtesies, uniform wear, fitness, weapons training, military history, and other information. Recruits with a guaranteed band placement are in the Drum and Bugle Corps flight, which rehearses and performs at the graduation ceremony.

<http://www.airforce.com/opportunities/enlisted/basic-training/>

RETIREMENT

After 20 years of service, Airmen are eligible to retire with 50% of their base pay. Each additional year of service adds 2.5% to the amount, topping out at 75% after 30 years. The amount is adjusted annually to reflect cost of living changes.

Source: <http://usmilitary.about.com/cs/generalpay/a/retirementpay.htm>

UNIFORM ALLOWANCE

Members receive an annual tax-free clothing allowance to replace uniform items.

HEALTH CARE

All members of the U.S. Armed Forces are automatically enrolled in TRICARE - the Department of Defense's health care program for active duty personnel, retirees, and their families. Through TRICARE, members receive FREE, comprehensive medical and dental care as needed at one of the area military treatment facilities or civilian TRICARE providers. Family members may also be enrolled in TRICARE and receive medical care at military or civilian facilities through various options for little or no cost. Inexpensive dental care programs may be purchased for family members. Air Force members may participate in the Service Members' Group Life Insurance (SGLI) program at very reasonable rates. For example, for only $29 per month, members may purchase life insurance coverage of $400,000.

VACATION TIME AND SICK LEAVE

Active-duty members of the USAF earn 30 days of leave (vacation) each year. Members of performing ensembles usually take their leave at the same time during a designated "blanket leave" period. Requests for leave outside of the blanket leave period are considered on a case-by-case basis and may be approved depending on the performing/rehearsal schedule and mission needs of each ensemble. Special consideration is given to emergency situations and significant family events.

Members are not charged leave for sick days, and with doctor authorization members receive as many days as necessary to return to full health.

BASE PRIVILEGES

Members and their families are permitted to shop at military commissaries (grocery stores), base exchanges (department stores) and service stations. These facilities offer tax-free shopping and a savings of about 30% over similar off-base stores.

OTHER FAMILY BENEFITS

Military family support centers in the Colorado Springs area provide job-search, volunteer and educational assistance to military family members. Some of the services provided are career counseling, interview techniques training, assistance with resume preparation and access to job banks and Department of Defense job listings. Free informational assistance for house hunting and understanding the local real estate market is also available for military families.

The Judge Advocate General's office on the most military installations offers free legal assistance to members and their families including preparation of wills and powers of attorney, review of legal documents such as lease agreements and notary service.
